

Draft Parks and Paths Strategy – Available for Inspection

The Town of Port Hedland has developed a Draft Parks and Paths Strategy which has assessed and evaluated public open space and movement networks within the Town.

The Town will be holding information stalls at the following locations and times:

Saturday 23 March 9.30am-11:30am:
South Hedland Square

Friday 29 March 4.15pm-6pm:
Kevin Scott Oval

30 March 9.30am-11:30am:
Port Hedland Boulevard

The Draft Parks and Paths Strategy Report has been deposited at the Town's Administration Office located at the Civic Centre on McGregor Street, Port Hedland and will be open for inspection during office hours up to and including 17 April 2019.

The draft strategy can also be viewed on the Town of Port Hedland website at: www.porthedland.wa.gov.au/planning-building-and-environment/planning/public-consultation.aspx.

Submissions on the draft strategy may be lodged in writing addressed to Development Services, Town of Port Hedland, PO Box 41, Port Hedland WA 6721 or via email: eplanning@porthedland.wa.gov.au. Submissions should reference the Draft Parks and Paths Strategy, details of the submission and be lodged with the Town on or before 17 April 2019.
