

TransHedland - Trial Bus Service

From Monday 17 September, additional services will operate as a trial in Port Hedland.

Bus services will operate as follows:

- Route 870 will run additional services and undergo a route change to run between South Hedland and Port Hedland, including a trial deviation through Wedgefield. Find a map of the route on the reverse side;
- Route 871 will run additional services.

Members of the community are reminded services can only continue to operate with strong and consistent patronage.

For timetables and more information, visit the TransRegional website www.transregional.wa.gov.au

Route 870 Wedgefield section

