AUCTION OF IMPOUNDED VEHICLES
Pickles E-Salvage 21/11/2022

Are you on the lookout for scrap metal or car parts?

By Public Auction, the Town of Port Hedland is selling abandoned vehicles.

In accordance with Section 3.58(2)(a) of the Local Government Act 1995, disposal of property will be to the highest bidder of public auction.

The items covered for sale are 'as is where is'. The successful bidders must collect the vehicles by making an appointment with Rangers after 8am Monday the 28th of November and before Monday the 5th of December, 2022. Any vehicles not collected before this date will be forfeited along with any payments made.

Vehicles cannot be taken on the date of auction.

Interested parties requiring any further information should contact Ranger Service on (08) 9158 9300 during business hours Monday to Friday or visit www.pickles.com.au

Canvassing of Staff and/or Councillors will disqualify.

Note: It is the responsibility of the purchaser of a vehicle to confirm the vehicle is not encumbered prior to any bids being made.
