PROGRAM

SATURDAY

ACTIVITIES / STALLS - 3:00PM TO 6:30PM

The Budadee Rangers are a group of Aboriginal rangers from Port Hedland, Marble Bar, Nullagine and Yandeyarra. Meet them and learn about their work with their traditional country.

Chat with the Cleanaway Team about the future recycling plans for Hedland and their involvement with the Containers for Change deposit scheme.

Flowers and flags - decorate a flower made from a repurposed single use plastic bottle or draw The Last Numbat on a flag.

Free face painting for the kids!

Drop by the stall to meet the joeys and learn how the volunteers at Lisa's Kangaroo Retreat care for wildlife in the Port Hedland area.

Sustainable T-shirt installation prep - join the Courthouse Gallery+Studio resident artist, Jane McGowan, for a drop in style activity to update one of your own T-shirts.

Talk all things waste with the Town of Port Hedland's Waste Services Team.

WORKSHOPS

From 2:00pm to 3:30pm, utilise recycled materials to create fantastical creature puppets from junk. Combining problem solving, technology and construction principals. Suitable for children 9 and up. Gratwick Hall | $15 workshop. Tickets available via www.mattdann.com

From 4:00pm to 5:30pm, drop in to create your own finger puppet characters using a range of soft fabric. Suitable for children aged 4 and up.

SUNDAY

ACTIVITIES / STALLS - 3:00PM TO 6:30PM

Chat with the Cleanaway Team about the future recycling plans for Hedland and their involvement with the Containers for Change deposit scheme.

From 2:30pm to 4:30pm, Join artist+maker, Tina Hall, as she leads you on a dynamic cyanotype wax wrap making workshop. Using the Pilbara's finest sun to take a snapshot of your chosen plant design on a trio of cotton swatches and paper. Participants will then use the cotton to transform the swatches into reusable wax paper!
$85.49 per ticket. Tickets available via www.thejunctionco.com.au
